- The reward points from LOTTE HOTEL Rewards used in these Terms and Conditions shall be referred to as LH Points.
- Changes may be made to privileges and special benefits for members and the point system in accordance with internal circumstances or changes in partnership related to LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS or its affiliates, when such changes are acknowledged as necessary. Members shall be notified in advance regarding the reason for the change and the changed terms through at least 2 of the following methods: website, written notice or e-mail. However, if changes are unavoidable due to reasons such as an affiliates' unforeseen change in partnership conditions or bankruptcy, natural disaster, or sudden changes in the business environment, members may be notified after the fact. If members do not present any objection within 1 month of receiving the notice of change, this will be regarded as an act of going consent to the changed Terms and Conditions. Members wishing to withdraw from the program may file their existing points for 1 year after the date of the change in Terms and Conditions. Any points remaining after the end of this withdrawal period will expire.
- LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS terminates This Program. It must be announced on the membership website and hotel website at least 6 months before termination. At least 1 e-mail shall be sent to all members notifying them of this fact.
- The points remaining at the 1 year mark after the notification of This Program's termination will automatically expire and all privileges and services will no longer be offered.
- The interpretation of all regulations and exemptions regarding the program will be interpreted rationally in accordance with relevant laws and commercial practices.
- If any part of the application and membership rules regarding This Program violates the compulsory laws of the applicant or member's residential area, the application for membership may be canceled for the relevant member.
- These Terms and Conditions have referenced commercial practices and have been compiled in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Korea.
- The court of jurisdiction for the 1st trial over any conflicts that arise regarding these Terms and Conditions will be the court of jurisdiction over the member's place of residence or business in South Korea. However, if the member does not have a place of residence or business in South Korea, the court of jurisdiction for the 1st trial will be the Seoul Central District Court.

Article 2 Membership Registration and Account Creation

- Individuals of at least 19 years old may register as a member for free, and each member will be given one membership number and account.
- Members may only have one membership account. Should there be multiple accounts, all except one membership account selected at random will be deleted. The points on the deleted accounts will be merged into the remaining membership account.
- The membership card may be printed through LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS website, mobile application, or an image of the card may be downloaded and used accordingly.
- During registration, members may select whether to disclose their personal information to 3rd parties. If consent is not given, points for LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS partner hotels, resorts and affiliated companies, LOTTE Duty-Free Shops, etc. cannot be used and other affiliate services cannot be offered.
- Members cannot voluntarily dispose of points, special benefits, and various privileges that are earned and offered through This Program. They cannot be sold or transferred to others for any reason whatsoever, aside from inheritance or succession, and may not be offered for rights to pledge or other such purposes.

Article 3 Membership Rights and Cancellation

- Members have the right to ask LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS regarding various privileges, special programs, and earned points at any time, and LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS may inform the member of matters regarding changes to the program, usefulness and minor information, and the member's accumulated points through methods that they deem appropriate. However, for notifications via post, LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS holds no responsibility for any disadvantages experienced by the member as a result of loss or delay of mail.
- If any charges are made to the address or other member information, members are obligated to notify LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS. The member will be responsible for any disadvantages they experience for their failure to notify the fact or provide the changed information.
- Points will expire 3 years after the year they were earned. However, membership rights will remain effective until the member withdraws, and if the member withdraws for reasons not attributable to LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS, all unused points until the point of withdrawal will expire once the withdrawal becomes effective. Expired points cannot be restored, and will be unavailable for use once they expire.
- If a member violates the program's rules or terms through behaviors such as selling member benefits, LOTTE HOTEL Rewards vouchers, etc. Without a legitimate reason or takes part in illegitimate activities other than, contests, etc., LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS may terminate the member's rights.
- The termination of member rights in Article 3 and 4 refers to the expiration of earned points and the termination of various privileges and use of special benefits.
- The personal information of members who do not use LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS services will not be logged into the website for 1 year unless separated and stored, in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Terms of Use in Paragraph 2 of the law regarding the promotion of information and communication network and protection of information, and such members may receive limited services.

Article 4 Points Earned

- Members may earn points according to the program's terms and regulations. Points cannot be earned separately through multiple numbers, and the points earned with one membership number may not be transferred to or exchanged with that of another membership number belonging to a different owner.
- Points are rewarded according to the accumulation rate (points 3.4% of the amount paid) of the members' level for the cost of rooms and food and beverages charged to the room by including the incurred costs in US Dollars after the member's stay. In this case, a separate USD exchange rate that is used by the hotel will be applied, and this exchange rate will be enforced through the LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS website.
- 10% points are worth USD 1.
- 10% points are calculated after the member stays at LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS in person, the points earned are limited to amount that were fully and directly paid by the member at LOTTE HOTELS & RESORTS after presenting their membership number.
